1965

To whom shall I give this book,
Polished with the best of my cares
And filled with the memories of my deeds?

To you, mother and dad,
Who used to think my little trifles were something
And delighted in showing me the wonders of our earth.

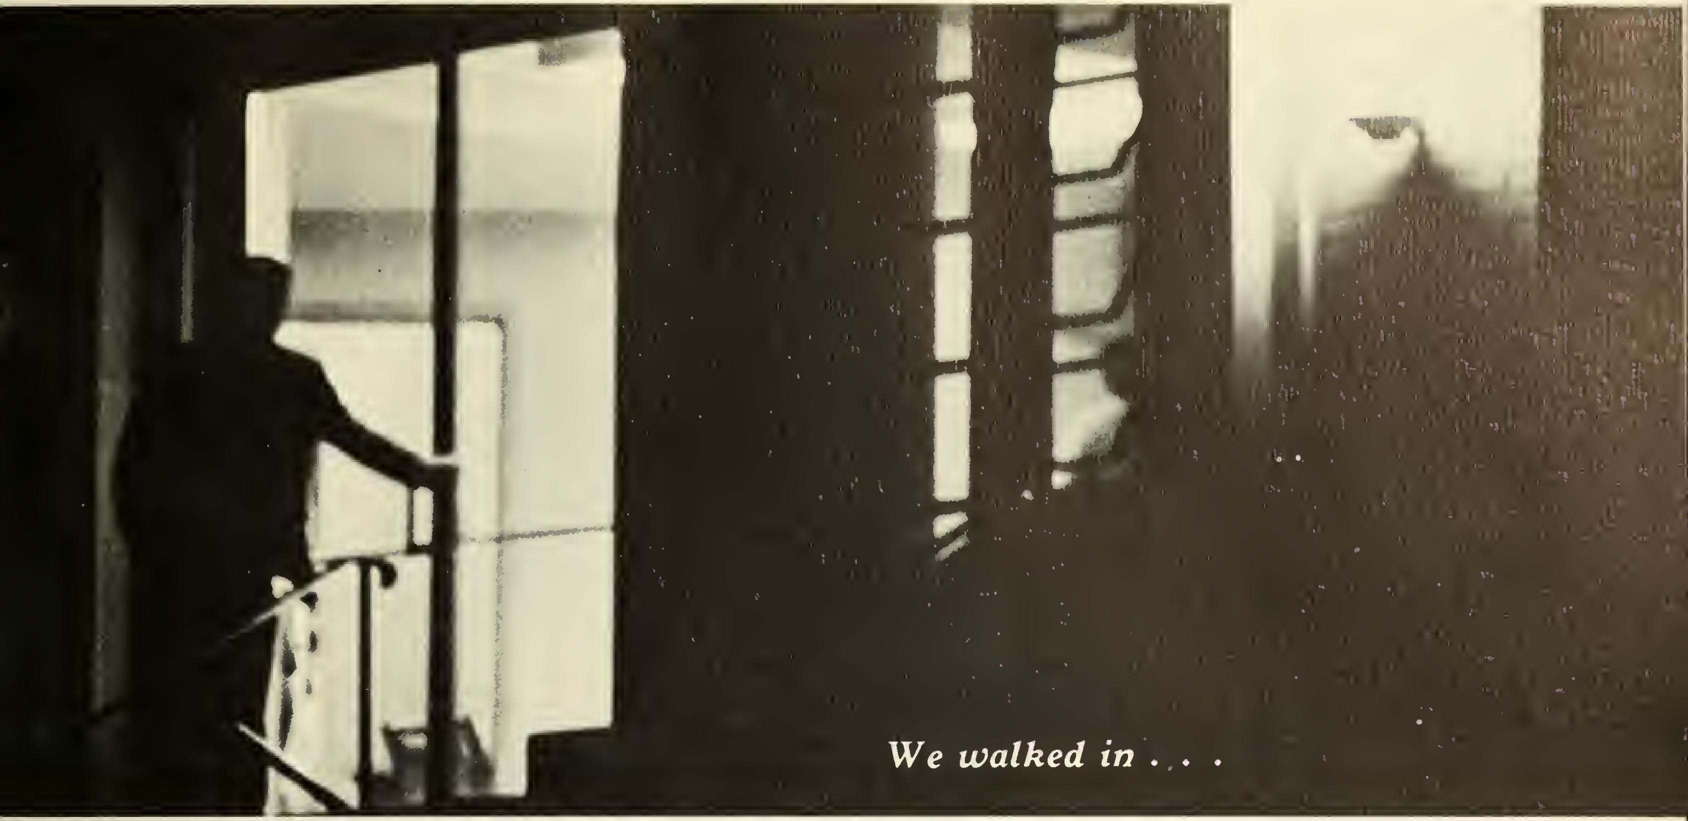
Today you watch me walking in a different world
Carrying with me the treasures of an age.

So I give you this book, and the values which it holds,
And pray its worth increases with its years.

What is Fairfield University?

We who have been a part of her life don't really know.

We found a door opened to us in the night.



We walked in . . .

and shared her light.

We can show you in this light some of the poses we struck . . .

the attitudes . . .

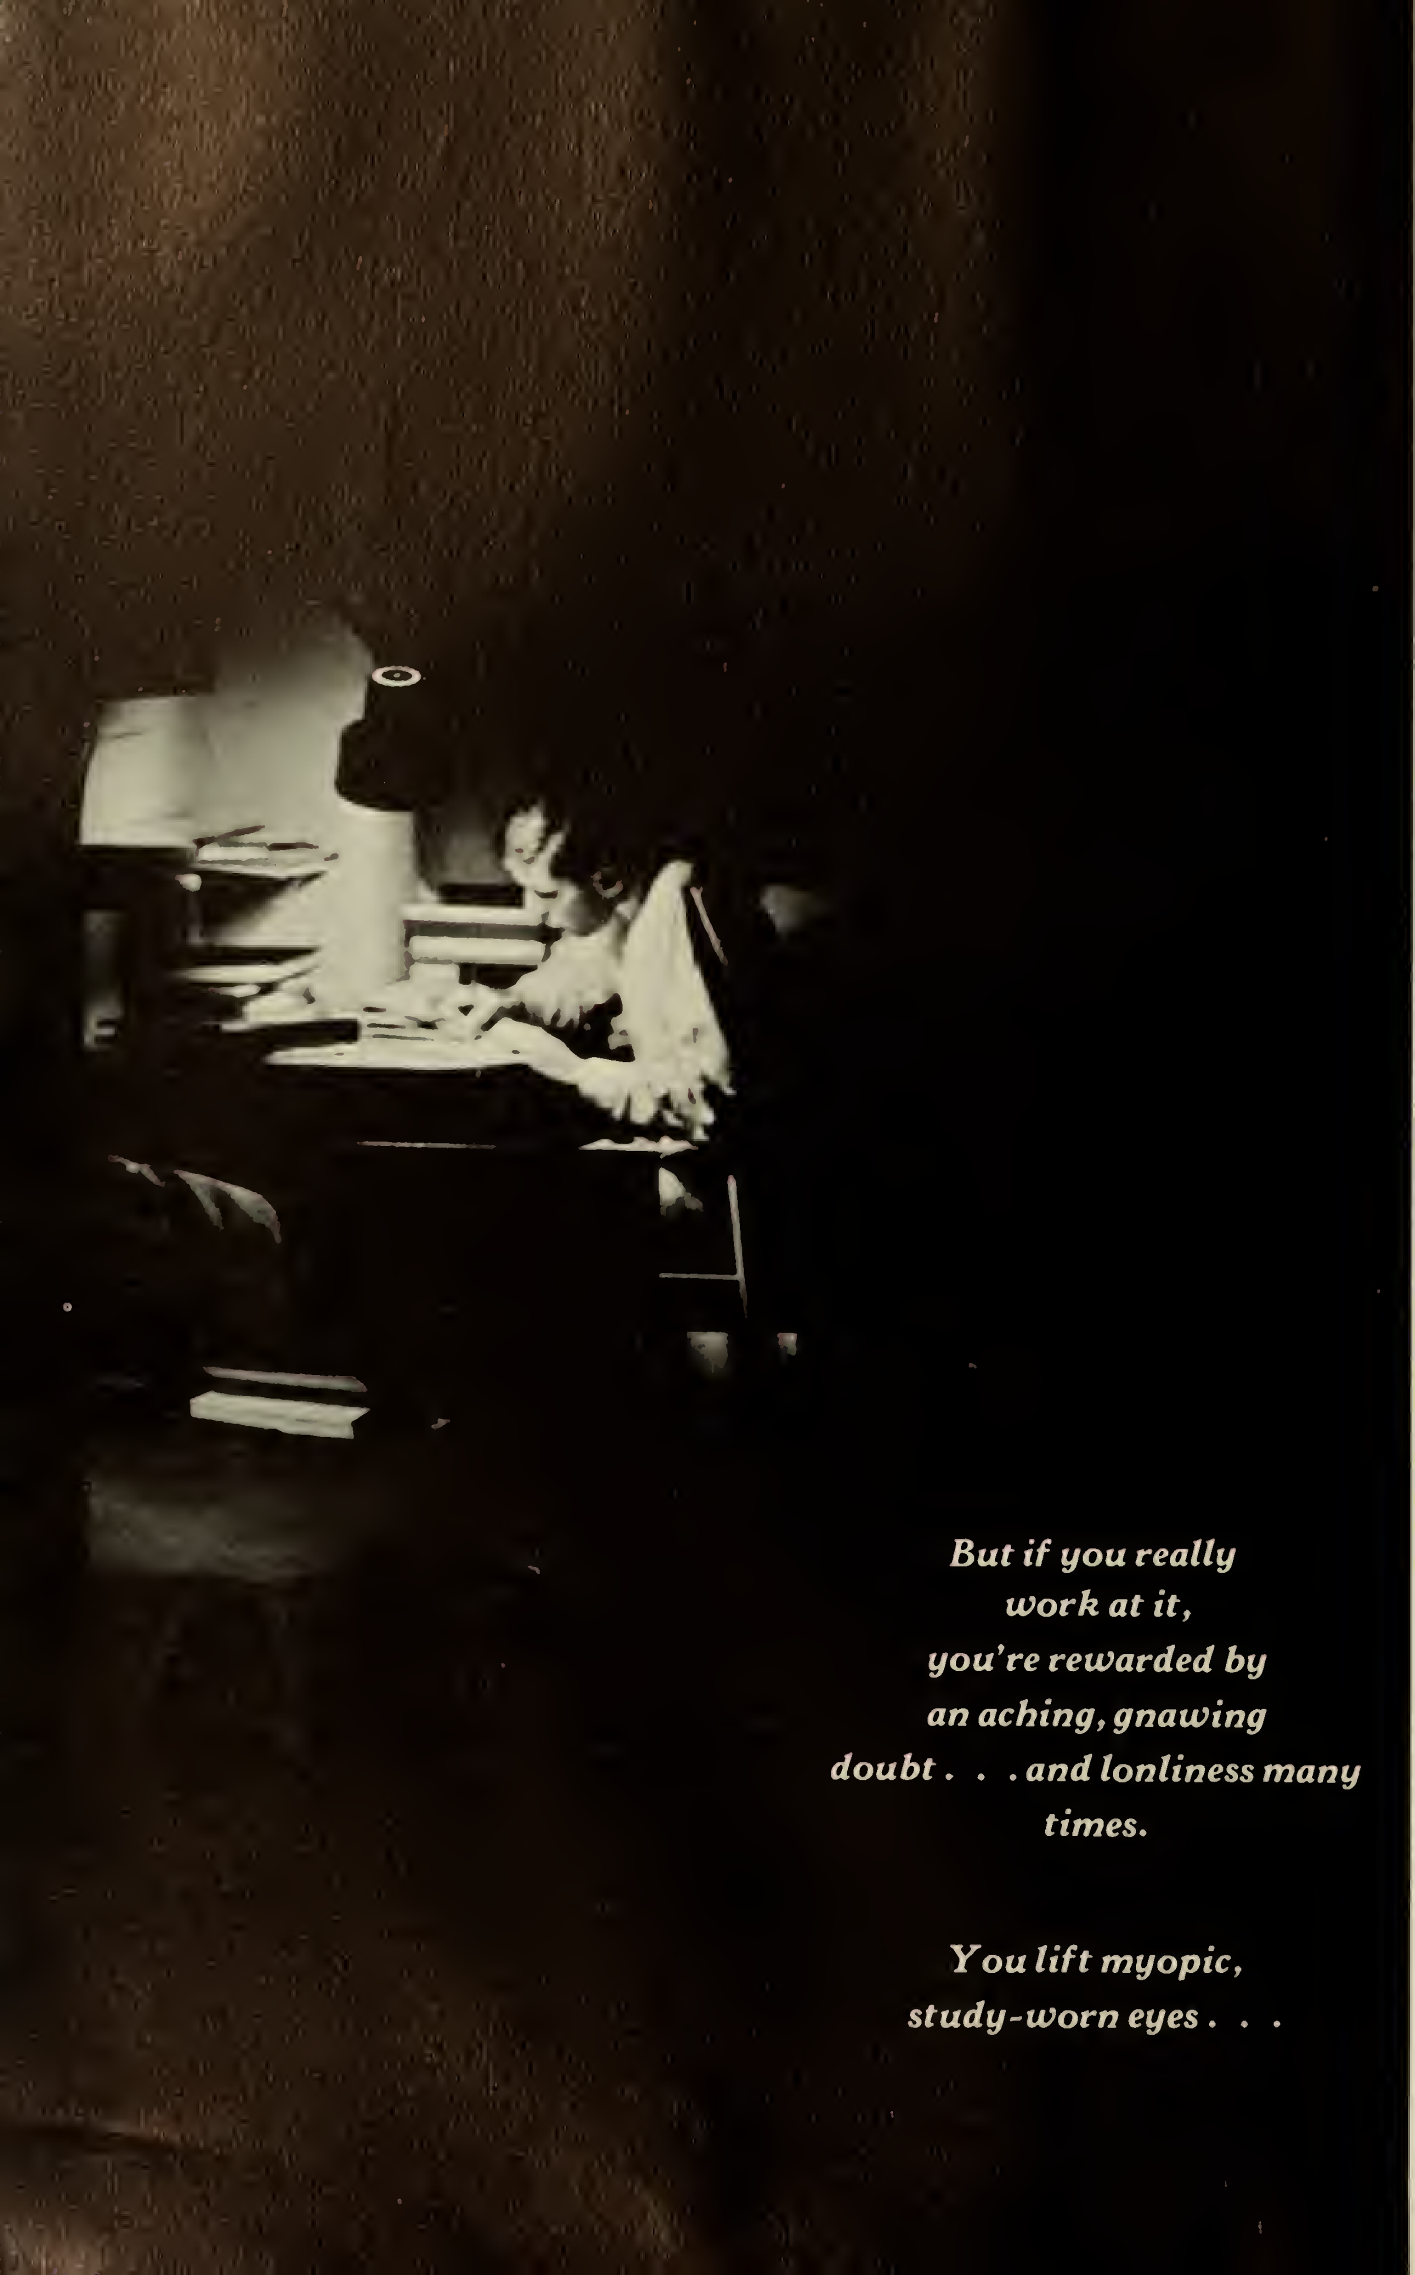
and arguments we shared.

We can unveil our surroundings and influences.

We might even tell you what we'd like it to mean.

But what it does mean,
we cannot say . . . at least not yet.

If you are the right type, you let four years walk past without having to look at yourself.



But if you really
work at it,
you're rewarded by
an aching, gnawing
doubt . . . and lonliness many times.

You lift myopic,
study-worn eyes . . .

to peer obscurely through
a rain-spattered glass.

And finally, pushed to the limit
of your being, you reach out and make the daring leap of the human spirit, charting your life
in the light of newly-discovered truths.

A light is seen, and with new-found courage, you walk to meet its goal.

Struggle

The Essence of an Athletic event
is struggle. The end product can be a soaring jump for joy, or
it can mean the frustration of the game "we shouldn't have lost".
The experience of sports taught
us much about the coming experience of life.

Rugby requires two qualities that life itself demands – Resolution and Persistence. Without the two, neither game can be played.

This was the year that Rugby established itself securely at Fairfield. With a full year of play behind it, the club survived early organizational difficulties in September and fielded three full teams for the fall competition.

While all three teams suffered losses through inexperience, the trend as the season neared its close was improving in favor of the Stags. All three teams played better Rugby with each game, in spite of the usual host of injuries.

Once again, the Stags sent two teams to the New York Rugby Club Seven-A-Side Tournament in November, and for the second straight year, distinguished themselves by their excellent play.

The Rugby Club owes a special debt to the tremendous efforts of Dr. John Kenyon, who both as a coach and a friend has been an inspiration to all the members of the club.

Officers Doug Ciacci, Mike Kelly and Frank Quinn were also largely responsible for the club's successful Fall season.

Varsity Basketball

This was how it began . . . the posed pictures . . . the fleeting handshake at midcourt . . . the opening tap . . . and the game itself. A whole season of Basketball; upsets, injuries, the tough ones to take . . . all gone by too fast. Thinking back to December, we didn't think we had an easy season ahead of us, and it wasn't easy. But it was good.

As the season approached, Coach Bisacca was a bit apprehensive. Larry Rafferty and Kurt Kilty were both gone from last year's starting five, as was the exciting Stan Poole. We still had Juniors Mike Branch and Pat Burke, but around them were a group of untested Sophomores and a Senior Captain who had seen little action in the two previous seasons due to injuries.

The team faced the toughest schedule in Fairfield's short history; our first big-time slate. The team lacked height, its tallest man being 6'4" tall . . . and the team lacked experience; only three of its players had seen any real varsity action.

Mike Branch reacted by becoming the eighth leading rebounder in the nation while averaging 15 points per ball game. In a personal duel with Warren Issacs (the nation's no. 1 leading rebounder and 20th leading scorer), Mike outrebounded and outscored the Iona ace. As the season progressed, Mike looked more and more like a bona-fide All-American candidate than ever before.

Pat Burke reacted by picking up where he left off in his sophomore year and continuing his prolific scoring. Burke's jump shot was in dazzling form and Pat also played excellent defense throughout the season. Late in the year, when Mike Branch's services were lost, Burke took up the slack in the rebounding department for the ailing Stags.

Joel Pascale, the senior captain, turned in a year of fine play highlighted by his fine passing and deadly long-distance jump shot. On top of that, Pascale took the job of captain seriously and accepted the responsibility it entailed and more. Near the end of the season, Joel was awarded the Bridgeport CYO's Athlete of The Year Award.

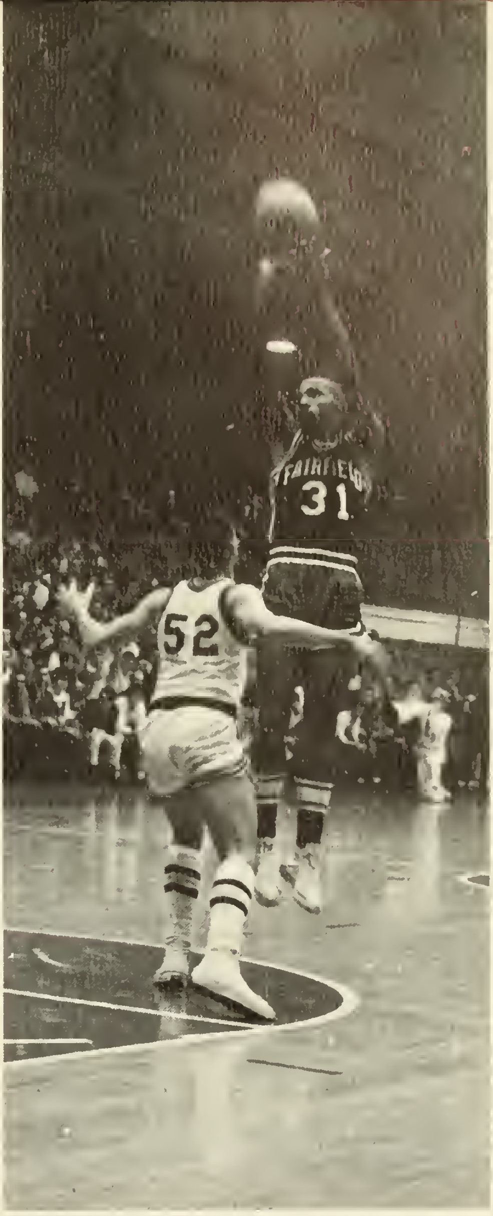
Jim Brown proved himself rather convincingly by tieing the school's single game field goal mark set by Bob Hutter (15) and by breaking the school's scoring record with a 39 point, 23 rebound effort against Southern Connecticut. In addition, Brown's ball handling was an integral part of the Stag offense.

Charlie Phillips was the kind of ballplayer that improved with each and every game. By the end of the season, Charlie was averaging points per ball game with his fantastic jumper and excelling on defense with his great speed.

Sophs Billy Pritz and Billy Boyd also acquitted themselves well. Pritz hit for 19 points against Canisius and saved quite a few games early in the season with timely steals and needed baskets. Boyd was a tremendous help as a reserve forward in clearing the boards and held up his end of the scoring at the same time.

Carl Menendez, Bill Hegarty and Kevin "Hound" Lyall also saw plenty of action this season and each displayed an abundance of talent and desire, as did the whole squad.



Two emergency recruits, Pat Scully and Pete Odlum, also sophomores, saw action late in the season and looked like they belonged. The crowd loved it.

Coach Bisacca and Assistant Coach Lou Saccone built a team that never quit and that, in its first year of big-time ball, knocked off powers like Georgetown, Canisius, Fordham, Seton Hall and Iona and pushed nationally ranked, undefeated Providence down to the wire before finally being nipped by seven points.

It was a good season. Sometimes the record doesn't show all that is accomplished. But it has been accomplished. The team should be proud of their season. The fans were. The school is. And then, there's next year . . .

As Fairfield reaches for big time recognition on the court, its progress can partly be measured by the success and ability of its freshman ball clubs.

This year, under coach Bob Jenkins, the Frosh showed more than ability . . . they showed a desire and a team spirit that should help immeasurably in the coming establishment of Fairfield as a Basketball Power.

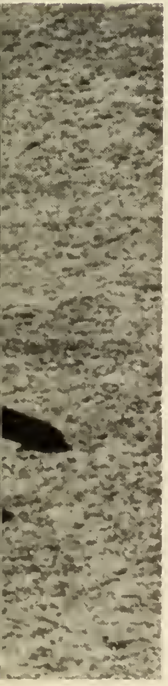
INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL

We traveled the road, growing together for four years. And perhaps will travel another hundred before we review this contact with our past.



In these few pages, to which the reader must add his own, what does our younger self say to us?

What is LIKE?

LIKE is a soft drink produced by The Seven-Up Company. It is a diet drink of 7-Up quality.

Other diet drinks leave you thirsty. Not LIKE! LIKE is the first diet drink that really quenches thirst.

LIKE gives you a fresh, clean, natural taste as you drink it. When you've finished the battle, the taste stays fresh — and your thirst is quenched.

LIKE contains less than one calorie per six fluid ounces. That's why diets like LIKE!

IS BUSINESS FOR THE BIRDS?

THE WORD ON CAMPUS IS THAT IT IS. At least, so says a daily business journal. An increasing percentage of college graduates are said to be shunning business in favor of such fields as teaching, scientific research, law and public service.

All these are very honorable vocations. They serve the well-being of all of us. But think a minute! What would our nation be like if from the beginning of our history American business had not been harnessed to the American dream — day in and day out providing products and services which have greatly enhanced our national health and strength; constantly innovating and changing to provide better products and better jobs at better incomes; contributing financial help to our charities, our schools and colleges and — through taxes — supporting government itself.

We think the businessman renders an important service, too — one which demands all a man can give in terms of intelligence and heart — in solving the problems which impede mankind's progress.

Let a man follow his vocational bent. But if business is for the birds, we hope many graduates will learn to fly.

HOW DOES ONE FEEL UPON VIEWING THE FINISHED PRODUCT? AS EDITOR, I IMAGINE MY EMOTIONS WILL BE DIFFERENT FROM YOURS. FOR ME THERE IS HAPPINESS, DISAPPOINTMENT, A BIT OF LONELINESS AND MUCH PRIDE.

WE MADE THE MANOR 1965 A YEAR BOOK, NOT JUST A SENIOR CLASS BOOK. FOR ALL, FROM FROSH TO GRADUATES, THERE IS SOME MESSAGE, SOME SENSATION, SOME PICTURE WHICH IS YOURS. AND TO EACH IT WILL BE SOMETHING DIFFERENT.

TO ALL OUR CONTRIBUTORS I SAY THANK YOU FOR YOUR TRUST IN ME AND THE STAFF. WITHOUT YOUR SUPPORT THIS DREAM WOULD NOT HAVE SEEN REALITY. I REGRET THAT MANY MORE DID NOT SHARE THIS TRUST WITH YOU BUT I GUESS THAT IS TO BE EXPECTED.

ALLOW ME TO THANK MY EDITORS:

—BOB MAZZOCHI FOR HIS DEDICATION, IDEAS, AND ABOVE ALL, HIS MORAL SUPPORT WHEN THE END APPEARED SO FAR OFF.

—LORRY ZEUGNER, JACK CRAIG, AND BOB BOLLO WHO HANDLED ADS AND FINANCES FOR ME. WITHOUT THEIR ASSISTANCE I WOULD HAVE BEEN LOST.

—GEORGE CINCOTTA AND BOB MORRISSEY FOR THEIR WORK ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY. THEY SPENT MANY VACATIONS IN THE OFFICE WORKING ON THEIR SECTIONS.

—LEO PAQUETTE WHO HELPED US WITH OUR EXPRESSION. WE KNEW WHAT WE WANTED TO SAY, BUT HE SAID IT.

—JEFF CAMPBELL WHO PRESENTED THE SPORTS SECTION IN A NEW, VIVID WAY; I FIND HIS INSIGHT INTO THE ATHLETIC WORLD MOST INTERESTING.

—SHELLY KATSOFF FOR HIS ARDENT WORK IN PRODUCING A NOVEL AND ATTRACTIVE SENIOR SECTION.

—BILL FLAHIVE FOR HIS PHOTOGRAPHY AND ASH THUMM FOR HIS EXCELLENT WORK ON THE FACULTY SECTION.

THANKS TO MR. MADDEN, S.J., MR. BALDETTI, AND FR. McCORMICK FOR THEIR INSPIRATION AND HELP WHEN THE CHIPS WERE DOWN.

A SPECIAL NOTE OF APPRECIATION GOES TO JOHN KARAMON, PUBLIC RELATIONS PHOTOGRAPHER, AND TED BUKOWSKI, HIS ASSISTANT, FOR HELP RENDERED AS THE DEADLINE APPROACHED.

MR. VICTOR H. O'NEILL, OUR REPRESENTATIVE FROM THE PUBLISHER, IS A MAN OF OUTSTANDING CHARACTER AND ABILITY. WE HAVE ALL GROWN BECAUSE OF OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH HIM.

HOW TO END BUT TO BID ADIEU TO YOU, OUR PATRONS, AND WISH YOU SUCCESS IN YOUR FUTURE AT FAIRFIELD AND IN THE YEARS TO COME.

TO OUR FRIENDS,

TO OUR ENEMIES,
